

Upskill your team to minimise risk

Training courses led by award-winning experts

Australian Business Lawyers & Advisors (ABLA) provides training courses for business professionals with a focus on educating to minimise legal risk in the workplace.

Our business focusses on providing accessible, high quality and exceptional value for money legal services and training. We partner with you to educate and train your teams, identifying gaps in your processes and policies that may increase the risk profile of your business.

These courses are consistently rated 'excellent' by past delegates, with attendees leaving with the confidence and knowledge to manage staff the right way, the first time.

Courses

- Bullying, harassment and discrimination
- Sexual harassment in the workplace
- Workplace investigations (advanced course)
- Workplace investigations (an introduction)
- Enterprise bargaining
- Performance management
- Managing ill and injured workers
- Owner driver arrangements

Join us online for any of the above courses or get in touch for information on how we can tailor an in-house course to suit your team and industry.