

Workplace Investigations

Australian Business Lawyers & Advisors (ABLA) works with employers to prevent and minimise the impact that a workplace investigation can bring to a business. Our team knows the importance of a fair investigation that will hold up in court, and as a mission based organisation, ABLA focusses on the best outcome for your business at all times. ABLA can offer you:

Workplace Investigations

- Scope analysis – what needs investigating
- Interviews – independent and insightful
- Evidence – gather, review and assess
- Analyse – identify missing pieces
- Report – concise findings and recommendations
- Review – HR processes

Workplace Procedures Reviews

- Audit on workplace procedures to align with compliance obligations
- Post-incident strategic review

Workplace Investigations Training

- Inhouse training for HR professionals, business owners and senior managers
- Induction training for senior managers

Engaging ABLA in an investigation will provide peace of mind around impartiality and give you confidence the case will hold up in court.

Call today for a complimentary workplace investigations consultation and let the experts make things simple for your business.
