

Workplace Investigations

Australian Business Lawyers & Advisors (ABLA) works with employers to prevent and minimise the impact that a workplace investigation can bring to a business. Our team knows the importance of a fair investigation that will hold up in court, and as a mission based organisation, ABLA focusses on the best outcome for your business at all times. ABLA can offer you:

Workplace Investigations

- Scope analysis – what needs investigating
- Interviews – independent and insightful
- Evidence – gather, review and assess
- Analyse – identify missing pieces
- Report – concise findings and recommendations
- Review – HR processes

Engaging ABLA in an investigation will provide peace of mind around impartiality and give you confidence the case will hold up in court.

Call today for a complimentary workplace investigations consultation and let the experts make things simple for your business.

Workplace Procedures Reviews

- Audit on workplace procedures to align with compliance obligations
- Post-incident strategic review

Workplace Investigations Training

- Inhouse training for HR professionals, business owners and senior managers
- Induction training for senior managers
